RESERVE BANK OF INDIA
CENTRAL OFFICE
PUBLIC NOTICE
EXCHANGE CONTROL MANUAL

Bombay, the 29th December 1967

G.S.R. 1210.—It is notified for the information of the public that the fifth edition of the Exchange Control Manual has been issued by the Bank. This edition also contains the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1947 (as amended on the 1st April, 1965), the Notifications issued thereunder by the Central Government and the Reserve Bank of India as also the instructions issued by the Bank. These have been set out as on the 1st May, 1965.

2. Sub-section (3) of Section 20 of the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act empowers the Reserve Bank of India to issue instructions necessary or expedient for the administration of exchange control. Authorised dealers in foreign exchange and the general public are accordingly informed that the publication of this Manual constitutes publication of the statutory instructions issued by the Reserve Bank of India up to 1st May 1965, under the powers vested in it by the sub-section mentioned above.

3. Notice of instructions which may hereafter be issued will be given by the issue of circulars individually to authorised dealers in foreign exchange, and such instructions will be embodied later in the Manual in the form of additions and amendments. Such of the instructions as are considered to be of immediate interest to the general public will also be published in the Gazette of India.

4. Unlike the previous editions of the Manual, the present edition will be available for sale to the public through banks authorised to deal in foreign exchange at a price of Rs. 10 per copy. However, as the instructions contained in the Manual are likely to be modified, added to or rescinded from time to time, the public should, before entering into any transaction which may be covered by these instructions, take care to approach their bankers and ascertain the latest instructions issued by the Reserve Bank.

MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS

(Railway Board)

New Delhi, the 29th July 1967

G.S.R. 1217.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to the post of Assistant Medical Officer (Class II) in the Medical Department of the Indian Railways, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(i) These rules may be called the "Indian Railways Medical Department (Assistant Medical Officer Class II) Recruitment Rules, 1967".

(ii) These rules shall come into force on the date of publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the posts of Assistant Medical Officer (Class II) in the Medical Department of the Indian Railways specified in column 1 of the Schedule hereto annexed.

3. Number, classification and scale of pay.—The number of the said posts, their classification and the scales of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 2 to 4 of the said Schedule.

4. Method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications etc.—The method of recruitment to the said posts, age limit, qualifications and other matters connected therewith shall be as specified in columns 5 to 13 of the said schedule:

Provided that the maximum age limit specified in column 6 of the said Schedule may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the general orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

5. Reservation of posts.—Fifty per cent of the permanent vacancies in class II (Gazetted) posts of Assistant Medical Officers, which are to be filled by direct recruitment after the 17th May 1963 shall be reserved for graduate doctors who are commissioned in the Armed Forces on a temporary basis during the period during which the Proclamation of Emergency issued under clause (1) of article 352 of the Constitution on the 26th October, 1962, is in force, and are later released subject to the conditions—

(i) that they would have been eligible for appointment, had they not joined military service, and

(ii) that they are, at the time when they are considered for appointment, after release from military service, physically fit according to the rules for the time being in force.

Till such candidates become available for appointment, the reserved permanent vacancies shall be filled on a temporary basis.

6. Liability to serve in the Defence Services.—Every person appointed to the said post shall, if so required, be liable to serve in any defence service or post connected with the defence of India, for a period of not less than four years including the period spent on training if any,

Provided that such person—

(a) shall not be required to serve as aforesaid after the expiry of ten years from the date of such appointment;

(b) shall not ordinarily be required to serve as aforesaid after attaining the age of forty-five years.

7. Disqualifications.—(a) No person, who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the said post; and

(b) no woman whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to the said post:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

8. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons or posts.
